JEFF STRIPS OFF TO WAIST AT CAMP

Visitors Get to See Fighter in Shape as He Will Enter Ring.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 12.—Jeffries failed to keep his shirt on, to use an old expression, and it was an under-shirt at that. So visitors at the camp yesterday had the pleasure of seeing the big fellow stripped to the waist. In the altogether, Jeff showed what his training has done. Only a remnant of bay window remained of that flesh which had worried his followers. Jeffries spent the entire afternoon by bag punching and chest weight work. No announcement has been made regarding when he will resume boxing.

JOHNSON READY FOR TRAINING

Chicago, Ill., April 12.—Jack Johnson has started to pack up preparatory to leaving for his training camp at San Francisco next Thursday. His big touring car, which will be part of the training camp, will be shipped tomorrow and Johnson's baggage and gymnasium outfit will be forwarded next day.

CACTUS LEAGUE DOPE

By N. M. Walker

Bokenfohr, a side winder from Shreveport, is journeying El Paso towards to join the Cactus club. A C. Q. D. message to the Shreveport club by manager Frank Harbuck for a pitcher brought instant relief, and the request for transportation from the Louisiana end of the line and Bokenfohr is now on his way to wear an El Paso uniform. Harbuck and Cal Earthen are both familiar with the work of the left hander, who is to augment the pitching staff of the Wild Cats. He has worked with New Orleans in both the summer and winter league, pitching against the big league players who were wintering in the Crescent town last winter between seasons. He has also been with Alexandria, of the Arkansas State league, and has held regular berths in others of the southern minor leagues. He is expected here in time to work against the crack Bisbee team Saturday or Sunday, and will be sent in against the copper diggers if the altitude and high sky do not interfere.

It is now captain Hewitt instead of captain Merritt. Not that "Tex" has not made good. Far from it, for the big fellow with the lucky curve leg has been handling the team like a big leaguer since he donned those polo shin guards and the third cage. But a willing horse often has too big a load to carry and that is the way Merritt feels about his handling of the infield, outfield, pitchers and batters, to say nothing of catching behind the bat himself. At his request, manager Harbuck has relieved the big boy of the responsibilities of handling the field players, and Hewitt, the third baseman, will be the field captain instead. Merritt will devote his time exclusively to the pitchers who are working in front of him, with some little devotion to the man at bat, who is expected to receive a careful analysis at the native Texan's hands.

Bisbee on Saturday and again on Sunday. That is the way the cards are reading on the street cars this week. Last year Bisbee was what in vaudeville would be called a "supper hour chaser," meaning a fill in the outfit between fast dates. Not so this year. Bisbee is far from being an also ran in the Cactus championship race. The town on the side of the hill has gathered unto itself some ball players in their own right, and although Cananea trimmed them up in the recent unpleasantness between the two copper camps, Bisbee is as good as the best in the brush country, and the game Saturday and Sunday promises some sport for the boys with the palm leaf cooling arrangements.

WESTERN RACING DATES SET

Salt Lake, Utah, April 12.—Manager Richard Dwyer, of the Utah Jockey club, has officially announced the dates of all meetings in the jurisdiction of the Intermountain Racing association. Ogden is scheduled to open the season with a meeting commencing May 25 and running until June 4. Salt Lake then takes up the running, opening June 6 and continuing until July 21. A jump will then be made to Butte, where the runners will hold forth from July 23 until Aug. 29. Cheyenne will hold a meeting commencing Sept. 1 and finishing Sept. 20. Returning to Salt Lake, the final meeting will commence Sept. 24, and conclude Oct. 29.

A trainload of horses is en route here from Jacksonville, Fla., and a large number of horses will be shipped from the Pacific coast at the close of the Oakland meeting.

Writes that the ump, whose name he does not attempt to spell, made a hit with the Cananea fans. Stuart's letter reads: "Goodman, Riehard, Adams, Guy-nup and Bert Whaling were shining stars for Cananea Sunday, while Pullman, Deakins and Pinkey Grindle were in the limelight for Bisbee. "The new umpire, who is engaged for the season, made a hit with everyone, and cannot help but make good in the southwest. He's a little fellow, but bosses the field."
